

We invite your bookstore to join the Geez community!

WHAT IS GEEZ? Geez magazine is an award-winning, quarterly, non-profit, ad-free, print magazine covering social justice, art, and activism. We locate ourselves at the “fringes of faith” and offer a fresh take for those who are seeking spiritual nourishment as they engage in work for social change. We offer select pieces from each issue online, but we are committed to remaining primarily print in a world that is rapidly digitizing.

PAST THEMES Each of our 64-page issues focuses on a different theme. Past themes have included:

Mothering	Civil Disobedience	Resurrection
Food Justice	Hospitality	Death and Dying
Trees	Jubilee	Dismantling White Theology

OUR READERS Geez is published out of Detroit, Michigan and our subscribers are primarily based in the U.S. and Canada. Many of our readers consider Geez to be more than just a magazine, but an international community that offers hope, nourishment, beauty, and power.

SUBSCRIBERS HAVE SAID:

The voices you all bring together remind me that I'm not alone in the work of contemplative activism. Thank you for challenging, encouraging, and connecting me.
– C.L., Cincinnati, Ohio

Geez magazine is the most interesting thing happening in Christian publishing.
– Dean Dettloff, Toronto, Ontario

Geez creates conversations around many unspoken and unaddressed issues in the church and the world. I appreciate the risks being taken at Geez and hope it creates a trend of open truthfulness.
– B. H., New Paris, Indiana
